

CALL FOR PAPERS

14th International Conference in the Series: Iberian and Slavonic Cultures in Contact and Comparison

KNOWLEDGE FOR FREEDOM

Iberian-Slavonic Perspectives

November 28-30, 2024

School of Arts and Humanities, University of Lisbon | Alberta University

www.iberian-slavonic.eu | compares.geral@gmail.com

The 14th Ibero-Slavic International Conference invites scholars to a broad debate on the construction of freedom within Iberian and Slavic cultures. This event aims to explore the intercultural specificity of the Knowledge that enables and is called upon for Freedom in these cultural universes from a comparative perspective.

Objectives:

- To compare Iberian and Slavic cultural approaches to the theme of Freedom.
- To question Knowledge for/about Freedom across various fields: linguistic, literary, sociocultural, psychological, political, historical, philosophical, legal, and artistic.
- To analyze the influence of "freedom" discourses in both cultural geographies.
- To study the theme of Freedom in relation to contemporary economic, social, and ecological challenges.
- To highlight contributions of significant figures and organizations to the Freedom of Iberian and/or Slavic peoples, and analyze moments of solidarity and antagonism.

Special sessions include a Round Table and a Poetry Night dedicated to the theme of Freedom in Iberian and Slavic countries.
